MISSION

Hesburgh Libraries cultivates curiosity and discovery as a hub for intellectual life. We advance the University’s research, teaching, and learning goals while fostering Notre Dame’s engagement with the global scholarly community.

VISION

Hesburgh Libraries will be a collaborative, diverse, and inclusive community that advances human flourishing. Collectively, we will shift the paradigm on how research libraries further the creation, understanding, and use of knowledge.

GOALS

Goal 1: Foster a strong organizational culture at Hesburgh Libraries by developing shared purpose, clear expectations, and trust amongst all employees.

Goal 2: Build and empower a diverse, agile workforce that advances Hesburgh Libraries’ mission and vision while encouraging care for every employee’s mind, body, and spirit.

Goal 3: Develop a sustainable, robust, and adaptable technical infrastructure and organization-wide best practices that are the bedrock for effectively managing our services and resources.

Goal 4: Promote scholarly success through preeminent services and collections that equip users to access, create, and share knowledge.

Goal 5: Inspire affinity with Hesburgh Libraries by sharing impactful stories that enhance our reputation as a leader and partner in the scholarly enterprise.
