

The Hesburgh Libraries is the name of the system of libraries on Notre Dame's campus (except the Law School's Kresge Law Library, which is independent in support of the school's accreditation needs). Hesburgh Library is our flagship library building—it features the famous Word of Life mosaic on the front and overlooks the reflecting pool and football stadium to the south. The Hesburgh Library offers collections and services for all members of the Notre Dame community and is home to several specialty centers and libraries, including: the Navari Family Center for Digital Scholarship, the Medieval Institute Library, Rare Books and Special Collections, and University Archives.

In addition to the Hesburgh Library, there are nine branch library locations: Architecture Library, Chemistry-Physics Library, Engineering Library, Kellogg Kroc Library, Mahaffey Business Library, Music Library, O'Meara Mathematics Library, Radiation Chemistry Reading Room, and the Visual Resources Center. You can learn more about the locations, collections, services and expertise across campus using this checklist. Completing these activities will familiarize you with our libraries and support success in your research and writing here at the University of Notre Dame.

DISCOVER THE LIBRARIES' LOCATIONS AND PEOPLE

- Bookmark the homepage for the Hesburgh Libraries.
library.nd.edu
- Go to library.nd.edu → Libraries to review all libraries and specialty centers that are part of the Hesburgh Libraries system. Visit all locations related to your areas of study.
library.nd.edu
- Find your research librarians under Research → Librarians by Subject & Specialty.
directory.library.nd.edu/directory/subjects
- Locate your subject-related resources under Research → Subjects A-Z.
library.nd.edu/subjects
- Identify the many ways to get help from the Libraries.
library.nd.edu/contact-us
- Visit the Navari Family Center for Digital Scholarship for digital expertise, specialty technology, printing and scanning services, and more.
cds.library.nd.edu
- Discover items and specialized collections expertise to support your research in Rare Books and Special Collections.
rarebooks.library.nd.edu
- Explore the rich historical collections housed in the University Archives.
archives.nd.edu
- Visit the OIT Outpost for technology support on the 2nd Floor of Hesburgh Library.
library.nd.edu/contact-us
- Keep up to date on the Hesburgh Library Renovation and subscribe to construction alerts (Ren-Alerts).
renovation.library.nd.edu

USE ONLINE SERVICES

- Create your Interlibrary Loan account and understand how the service works.
library.nd.edu/ill
- Discover Document Delivery, the library materials request service. Learn how materials can be delivered to your branch library location (any student, staff, or faculty member) or department (faculty only).
library.nd.edu/docdel
- Find your course reserve items and related resources.
library.nd.edu/courses
- Ask what it means to request and recall an item or to have an item recalled from you.
library.nd.edu/borrow-renew-request
- To see all of your account activity, including all borrowed or requested items, go to library.nd.edu → Login → My Account.
library.nd.edu
- Set up your off campus access (VPN, Google FindText, Proxy Server).
library.nd.edu/off-campus-access
- Find books, music, movies, and journals in the ND Catalog.
library.nd.edu/catalog
- Use the e-journal locator to find journal titles and use our subscription links to access available content.
ejl.library.nd.edu
- Identify equipment you can borrow for study or research purposes.
library.nd.edu/technology-lending
- Reserve study and technology rooms to support your teaching, learning, or research.
libcal.library.nd.edu
- Visit the Circulation Desk at Hesburgh Library and get your St. Joseph County Public Library (SJCPL) card. With that card you can request SJCPL items to be delivered to the Hesburgh Library Circulation desk. You can also return borrowed SJCPL items to the Circulation Desk.
libraryforlife.org/Notre_Dame

EXPLORE TEACHING, RESEARCH AND WRITING SERVICES

- Manage your research documents and citations with RefWorks or other tools.
libguides.library.nd.edu/citing-managing
- Learn about the Writing Center services available at Hesburgh Library.
writingcenter.nd.edu
- Refresh your library research and information literacy skills with the Pot of Gold tutorial.
potofgold.library.nd.edu
- Arrange a library instruction session for a class or group.
library.nd.edu/instruction-request
- Attend library orientation sessions and workshops.
library.nd.edu/workshops
- Explore Remix, a platform offering multimodal projects to help build media literacy. Used as assignments, Remix projects ask students to actively engage multiple media in exploring and communicating course content.
remix.nd.edu
- Visit the Ask Us desk to begin or extend your research.
library.nd.edu/ask-us-desk
- Create and manage your ORCID author record. Once you have your ORCID record, use the Institutional Login option with your NetID and password to affiliate your ORCID with the University of Notre Dame.
orcid.org/register
- Learn about accessibility services and accommodations.
library.nd.edu/accessibility

facebook.com/NDLibraries

@NDLibraries

library.nd.edu